Treasurer's Report – $40,807.43 in checking

OLD BUSINESS:

Volunteers Database –

- Alisa started with list of directory and added people's volunteer info.
- Has list of CAPP certified parents who haven't volunteered
- Has list of expired CAPP
- At new parent meeting, parents filled out questionnaires which asked names, children, work, hobbies, etc., which can be helpful in identifying volunteers
- Good resource to find volunteers for PF set up and take down.
- Need to identify areas where we need help and then review info. sheets

Mama Mia –

- PTO will not have a group but would like to donate to the CKCS teachers' entrance fee and support their group

NEW BUSINESS:

Grandparents' Day Update:

- Food setup on tables outside of classroom
- Provide program and map (400 printed)
- (2) GP and Friends banners
- 8th grade will stay in gym for dance following program
- Sign-out in classrooms

Report Card Conferences:

- Thursday, Oct. 20
- PTO will handle snacks and carline (Lisa, Marlene, Dailey, Rosie, Alisa)
- Dailey – 30 boxed lunches @ $7; used Lenny’s last year – check into East Shore Cafe

Faculty Meetings: send reminders to class responsible for snacks/carline

Hot Dog Lunch: Oct. 25; Lisa will pick-up supplies

Junior High Special Lunch: PTO serves entire school and doesn’t feel they should sponsor a monthly lunch for three specific grades.

- Should be initiated by grades 6-8
- Can have lunch outside as long as there is supervision; need at least 4 adults
- Lisa Grimm can act as liaison

Open House for Parents:

- Consider scheduling during Catholic Schools Week – Jan. 29
- Students can write a letter to their parents expressing what a Catholic Education means to them
- Monday host “Come See What your Kids are Doing”
- Wednesday host BINGO
- Friday host picnic lunch outside

Red Ribbon Week: PTO will contribute $100 for essay contest and candy but ask the eighth grade Leadership Committee to distribute the candy

Pumpkin Festival: (Amy Faherty and Jill Roh)

- 161 Families elected to donate $15 to cover the cost of 2-liter drinks, candy and egg donations
- One-order form was well received by parents
- Inflatables have been ordered and down payment paid for set-up/delivery, and dunking booth
- Haunted House coming along. Donations go toward 8th grade gift fund
- Less than 20 raffle tickets to sell
- Will send one last e-blast about PF
- Flyers to Baptist Church next door and St. Lawrence
- KOC set on doing inside food
- Need volunteers for setup/take down
- T-shirts and wrist bands can be delivered as early as Oct. 12 and latest Oct. 17.
- Rosie wills end list of room moms to Amy

Next Meeting: Nov. 1 at 1 p.m. in the Immaculata Center
